
God Made Christmas

the real message of christmas - timothyreport - what does that mean for us? how does christmas show us god's promise? because jesus is the promise fulfilled. we all know people who have broken their promises, and perhaps we've broken a few ourselves. but god made a promise that one day he would send a savior into the world, and when he sent his son jesus to the god who keeps his promise - fconline - paul's sermon centers on god and his sovereignty over all of history, especially the history of salvation. god began the process by choosing abraham, isaac, and jacob. it was not their choice of god, but god's choice of them, that is significant. then, god made the people great during their stay in egypt. god led them out "i'll be home for christmas" - loving god. loving ... - "i'll be home for christmas." whether we are actually at home this christmas or home only in our dreams, we are truly at home because in christ god has made his home among us. if home is the place where we are loved, the place where we belong and are always welcome, then our home is with our saviour who is born to christmas lessons carols - cathedral - the christmas story, at its core, is about that moment in time when god chose to dwell among us. in the church, we call it the incarnation. christmas is about that moment when god came closest to us, when the veil between heaven and earth slipped away and we could see and touch the very face of god. the word made flesh st. john 1.1-14 trinity lutheran ... - things were made, and without whom nothing was made that was made. and it's on this day of christmas when we cele-brate the fact that it's this word of god who "came down from heaven, was incar-nate by the holy spirit of the virgin mary and was made man" to dwell among us. but don't think that it was for god's the regulative principle of worship and christmas - violate two important biblical principles. (1) christmas is a violation of the regulative principle. it is an invention of man that came into the church long after the death of the apostles and the close of the canon. (2) christmas is a monument of pagan idolatry and cannot be made pleasing to god. sermon for dec. 19, 2010 "christmas love" - sermon for dec. 19, 2010 - "christmas love" text: isaiah 7:10-16; 1 corinthians 13; matthew 1:18-25 for the last three weeks - as we've lit our advent wreath candles - we've been looking at the hope, the peace, and the joy that god grants us through christ jesus. today is the 4th first christmas church resource a nativity play (with a ... - first christmas church resource a nativity play (with a twist) from tearfund page 1 of 12 dialogue version narrated version performance time: 10 minutes; 15 minutes with all songs this is a new take on the nativity story for children aged four and over - but it is suitable for an all-age first baptist church sermon of the week emmanuel matthew 1 ... - first baptist church sermon of the week emmanuel matthew 1:18-25 ... god is going to make a personal visit to the earth he made, who will he want to see? there is a message for us in the people of christmas. what we have in the christmas story is god with a group of poor and outcast people. at best mary and joseph were poor peasants. when mary ...
